

ABAC 11.3 – Information Technology Policy

In accordance with University System of Georgia policy, Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College establishes Information Technology policies that rely on, defer to, and abide by Sections 10.1 through 10.4 of the University System of Georgia Board of Regents Policy Manual.

ABAC adopts and defers to the University System of Georgia Information Technology Handbook for all information technology policies, guidelines and procedures related to institutional technology resources acquired, implemented and managed.

Information Technology (IT) Handbook Table of Contents

- Section 1.0: Information Technology (IT) Governance
- Section 2.0: Project and Service Administration
- Section 3.0: IT Management
- Section 4.0: Financial and Human Resource Management
- Section 5.0: Cybersecurity
- Section 6.0: ePrivacy
- Section 7.0: Facilities
- Section 8.0: Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) Standard
- Section 9.0: Data Governance and Management Structure
- Section 10.0: Learning Management System (LMS)

Link to USG IT Handbook:

https://www.usg.edu/information_technology_services/it_handbook/