

Supporting Documentation

The following are examples of supporting documentation which may be submitted as evidence of domicile. The submission of any of the following documentation does not guarantee reclassification as an in-state student. The tuition classification officer will consider the totality of circumstances when making a tuition classification determination.

Students under the age of 24 should submit documentation related to the domicile of their parent(s) or U.S. court-appointed legal guardian, in addition to documentation related to their own domicile.
